

ASSESSING AND MANAGING SUICIDE RISK

AMSR's research-informed risk formulation model helps clinicians feel confident navigating challenging conversations and offers key strategies for providing compassionate care to people at risk for suicide.

AMSR Direct Care is designed for professionals in behavioral health fields, including:

- » Case Managers
- » Care Navigators
- » Mental Health Technicians
- » Recovery Coaches
- » Peer Specialists
- » LPNs

JOIN US FOR A HALF-DAY AMSR TRAINING

Date: AUG 31 Time: 8:30 1:00 Place: Virtual

The training will be held virtually on August 31st, 2022. Attendees should sign on at 8:15am for early sign on to ensure their technology is working properly. The training will begin at 8:30am and conclude at 1pm.

All participants who complete this training, along with the evaluation survey, will be eligible to receive a Certificate of Completion.

AMSR TRAINERS

Angelina Williams &
Dawn Vo-Jutabha

ENROLL TODAY

Deadline to enroll is 8/17

<https://go.edc.org/3aqy>

For more information, please contact awilliams@tgclb.org